

Director, Investments

A senior management position with roles including but not limited to the following:

InVcap is looking for a Director of Investments to manage its investment portfolio and lead other deal teams in Africa. The candidate will be required to have successfully managed investments from entry to exit including deal sourcing, due diligence, structuring, and modeling of complex deals.

Candidate must possess skills in funds management, financial analysis, debt and equity structures and evaluating investments deals.

A minimum of 5-7 years experience in private equity investments and asset management is required.

Title: Director Investments

Benefits: TBA

Qualification: MBA, CFA

5-7 years.

Salary- TBD

Additional Requirements

Travelling required for presentations, to represent Invcap at Investee companies and to review or secure deals amongst others.

InVcap is a "Financial First" fund with a primary mission of generating superior returns for its investors. It also intends to have a significant, positive social impact in its locations. Our triple bottom line goal of sustainable long-term returns is derived through profits, better lives and preservation of the environment.

InVcap's Industry focus is: IT, Energy, Telecom, Infrastructure, Commercial real estate, Hospitality/ Tourism development, Manufacturing-Consumer products, Financial Infrastructure.

InVcap team members will supplement investment capital with technical assistance and oversight at its Investee companies. It will also help to develop local management teams, improve worker skills, establish or enhance corporate governance, financial transparency, accounting, social responsibility and tax compliance as necessary.

Respond to: Kola Otekalu, HR Consultant,

Tel: 3474344555

Location: Nigeria